The Board is pleased to announce that on 10 June 2026, the Company entered into a letter of intent (the “Letter of Intent”) with Shenzhen Xiaowan Sports Culture Co., Ltd.* (深圳市小灣體育文化有限公司) (the “Target Company”). Pursuant to the Letter of Intent, the Company intends to invest RMB3 million (the “Investment”) in the Target Company by way of capital injection, representing no less than 34% of the equity interest in the Target Company after the Investment.

The funds of the Investment are earmarked for the following purposes only:

1. Operation of the Hunanese football community in the Greater Bay Area, operation of the football team’s matches, and organization of public welfare events;
2. Development of Hunan cultural IP, brand promotion, short video and media matrix construction;
3. Industry matchmaking for Hunanese businesses, government-enterprise resource linkage, project incubation and implementation; and
4. Daily compliant operation, team building and office operating expenses of the Target Company.

Upon signing the Letter of Intent, the Company will conduct due diligence on the Target Company, and both parties will sign a formal investment agreement upon completion and satisfaction of the due diligence results.

Information on the Target Company

The Target Company is the legal entity and sole initiator of the Hunanese Football Team in the Greater Bay Area, and is one of the participating teams in the Hunan Provincial Football League (officially abbreviated as the “Hunan Football League”, with the English abbreviation “HNFL”). It is a professional platform entity deeply rooted in the Hunan business community of the Greater Bay Area, specializing in cultural and sports event operation, Hunan cultural IP development, and industry resource integration.

To the best of the Directors’ knowledge, information and belief, having made all reasonable enquiries, as at the date of this announcement, the Target Company is independent of and not connected with the Company and its connected persons (as defined in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”)).

Reasons and Benefits of Entering into the Letter of Intent

The Group has been actively seeking to expand its existing businesses, create a smart new consumption ecosystem covering sports, cultural tourism, entertainment and other fields, and focus on the sports IP field, promoting a new business model that combines international sports IP with local sports culture, and building a new sports IP consumption chain that fits local consumption patterns.

The Board believes that through the Investment, both parties can jointly create a sports IP belonging to the Hunanese in the Greater Bay Area, by collaborating with other sports IPs of the Company, which can create a scale effect of resources and generate greater commercial value.

The Investment is an important milestone for the Company in expanding its localized sports IP business, which will enhance the Company’s overall competitiveness and is expected to bring new business growth points to the Company, having a positive impact on the Company’s future development.

Based on the above, the Board considers that the Investment is in line with the development strategies of the Company and is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

General

The Letter of Intent aims to establish initial understanding among the parties regarding the Investment. The Letter of Intent is a non-legally binding agreement and will not incur any legal liability to any party in any way. If the parties entered into a formal agreement or any significant progress be made on the Investment, further announcement will be made by the Company in accordance with the Listing Rules if and when appropriate.

Shareholders and/or investors of the Company should note that as the parties have not yet signed a formally binding document and negotiations are still ongoing, the Investment under the Letter of Intent may not necessarily be finalized.
